

Personal and Local

Small Bickerman was a business visitor to Jacksonville last Friday.

J. D. Clardy, of Suwannee county, sent the News office a call last Saturday. —Jasper News.

A 4 dose "666" will cure any case of Chills and Fever. Price 25c.

C. A. Bevale and wife were in the city last Saturday, shopping and attending to business affairs.

E. H. Sweet, son of Mrs. R. P. Sweet, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. E. J. Sweet, of McDonough, Ga.

Recently from—a handsome piece of jewelry at J. B. Evans.

Mr. Hargis and family, of Live Oak, was moved into the cottage in front of Hargis's livery stable. —Lake City Index.

As going away solid gold and guaranteed jewelry. J. B. Evans.

Mr. J. White, state evangelist for the Christian church, of Stark, was in the city Saturday en route to Miami, where he is holding a very successful evangelistic meeting.

J. H. Smith, of Hagerstown, Md., was in the city one day last week the guest of his brother, Col. Fred W. Butler. —S. W. 94 a traveling man and represents a Baltimore wholesale house.

Just got along at Wagon.

The new union passenger depot is going to be a handsome building, and will not be long now before it will be completed and ready for occupancy. The estimator is rushing work on it so as fast as he possibly can.

De-fish—Something new in a shelf to house pots. See Mr. Bailey at Wilson & Thompson's furniture store.

The Jasper checker players defeated the Live Oak players in a series of games at Suwannee Springs last Friday night. The games were played at the Suwannee Springs hotel and were witnessed by quite a number of lovers of the game from Jasper and Live Oak.

From Paston, Ollie Jackson, Lawton High and Byron Farnell passed through Jasper last week. The boys drifted down Suwannee river from White Springs to Suwannee Springs on a fishing trip and were on their way home. —Jasper News.

Big reduction in millinery. Good assortment to select from. The Ladies' Emporium.

W. B. Litcher, manager of the Florida hotel in this city and the Suwannee hotel in Live Oak, was a business visitor to Lake City Tuesday. Mr. Litcher is one of the best hotel managers in the state and is very popular with the traveling men. He is doing a big business of Florida's two most noted hotels. —Lake City Index.

Wm. Vann, of Pinomount, was in the city Wednesday.

Col. Fred W. Butler was in Jacksonville Wednesday to represent a client in the courts of that city.

Mrs. E. V. Wooding, of Blackshear, Ga., returned home Monday after a visit in this city to her daughter, Mrs. Fred W. Butler and family.

See the large table of remnants, left from the big sale at The Ladies' Emporium.

Mrs. T. S. Baisden and children and Mrs. W. R. McGregor and little daughter left Tuesday for Atlanta, Ga., where they will spend a month.

After several days' visit with friends and relatives at Live Oak and Madison, Miss Edna and Clyde Catledge returned home Wednesday. —Jasper Banner of Liberty.

J. Hungerford Smith's Standard Extracts and Fruit Colors in full 2-ounce bottles, etc. Suwannee Drug Co.

The county convicts have been moved down near Suwannee Spring, where they will make some much needed repairs on the public roads. —Jasper Banner of Liberty.

You can get a handsome piece of guaranteed gold and gold plated jewelry free at J. B. Evans.

J. Q. Mills, of Rosburg, was in the city Wednesday and made the Democrat a visit. Mr. Mills reports crops in his section only fairly good. The corn crop in that section is hardly as good as last year, and the cotton crop, he fears, will be considerable short.

Mr. Bailey, at the Wilson & Thompson furniture store, has for sale a very handy and convenient flower pot shelf or stand, and if you have flowers this very economical way of caring for them will interest you.

Ex-Sheriff John Hawkins, of Inverness, who was in the city the first of the week, sold his 80-acre farm a few miles south of the city to L. D. Byrd. Suwannee county farm lands soon find a purchaser these days when placed on the market.

J. L. Edwards and family, of Jacksonville, will make Lake City their future home, having moved into the Evans house. Mr. Edwards will have charge of the commissary department of the East Coast Lumber Co., at Watertown. —Lake City Citizen-Reporter.

Sale prices are still on the skirts, shortwaists, and muslin underwear at The Ladies' Emporium.

Mr. J. F. Landen, one of this county's best farmers, was in the city Saturday and made the Democrat a pleasant visit. He says cotton has been damaged to some extent by the rains, but feels sure of a fairly good crop anyway. Mr. Landen had two cows to stray from his place nearly a year ago, and is advertising for them in today's Democrat.

Rev. R. V. Atkisson returned Saturday from a couple of days' visit at Suwannee Springs.

J. B. Newman has resigned his position as traveling salesman and is now at his old business buying crosssties.

Go-fly keeps flies of horses or cattle. 25c and 50c at all drug stores. 8-13

R. D. Gaylord, a prominent young man of Wauchulla, was in the city last Friday en route to McAlpin to visit his parents.

P. H. Lewis, of Suwannee, has the honor of sending to the Democrat this year the first boll of open cotton. We received it by mail on last Friday.

3 or 6 doses "666" will cure any case of Chills and Fever. Price 25c.

C. J. Williams has returned from his visit up in Georgia and can be found at his photo studio ready for business. During Mr. Williams' absence his place of business was in charge of Mr. Dampier.

No ice cream like that at Cook's.

Jas. I. Hardy, representing Marshall & Co., cotton factors of Savannah, was in the city last Friday and Saturday interviewing our cotton buyers and soliciting consignments from the cotton growers. See their ad elsewhere in today's Democrat.

Ebb Harris has resigned his position with the L. O., P. & G. railroad and has accepted the position of traffic manager and auditor for the Suwannee River and White Springs Railroad Co. Mr. Harris is an experienced railroad man and a very clever gentleman.

Wrigley's Spearmint Gum. Suwannee Drug Co.

It may have rained frogs last Friday night, but we doubt it. Anyway, sometime during the night we had a shower of rain, or frogs or something, and Saturday morning the ground was fairly covered with little frogs and they were as lively as could be, jumping here, there and everywhere.

School books and supplies at Cook's.

Dr. W. M. McRae came down town Monday with his face all aglow with "that smile that won't come off." He was inquiring for the census taker, stating that the population of Live Oak had been increased and he desired to have it shown immediately upon the census report. Mr. McRae says it is a very promising boy.

Strayed, about one year ago, two cows; marked crop-underbit in one ear, under-square in the other, branded on hip with "K." Will pay for information leading to their recovery. J. F. Landen, Live Oak. R. D. D. No. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Harvard will leave for eastern markets in a few days to purchase their fall stock of millinery, dry goods, ready-to-wear, etc. Miss Douglas, the milliner, and Miss Standiford, the ready-to-wear lady, will join them in Baltimore to assist in selecting goods for their departments. Mr. Harvard says they will be away until the first of September and expects to buy the largest and best stock he has ever brought to Live Oak.

Several communications have been unavoidably crowded out of this issue of the Democrat. We are very sorry, but on account of extra work in getting out today's paper, and one of the men in the office on the sick list it was impossible to get the matter in type. We try to give county correspondents right-of-way over all other news, and hope our correspondents will continue to send in the news of their section. We promise them better treatment hereafter.

Musical instruments at Cook's.

A negro arrested by a deputy sheriff at the depot last Friday afternoon charged with being a suspicious character, tried to give the officer the slip while en route to the jail; making a break for liberty he ran back of the old Parshley building. Failing to heed the officer's command to halt, the officer fired a shot from his revolver, with the result that the negro stopped and surrendered, although he had gained considerable lead. There were a number of men standing nearby when the negro made his attempt to escape, and they joined heartily in the chase.

Miss Peek of the Union hospital, left this morning for a two weeks' vacation trip to Lauraville, Fla. —Valdosta Times.

Lands advertised in the Democrat for sale by the city and by the state and county for taxes will be sold next Monday. Be on hand if you want to buy.

W. R. McGregor, of Santa Fe, was in the city the first of the week to visit his wife and little daughter who were guests of Mrs. McGregor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Baisden.

Miss Lorena Martin, of Hilton, Ga., who has been the charming guest of Miss Edna Blume for the past week will return home Friday, much to the regret of her many friends.

Mrs. C. N. Hildreth, Sr., returned home Monday from Americus, Ga., where she has been for the past month to visit her daughter, Mrs. Council, who has been quite sick, but is now convalescing.

A nice line box paper and tablets. Suwannee Drug Co.

Live Oak is entitled under the rulings of the postoffice department to free city mail delivery, and we are pleased to note the matter has been taken up with the proper authorities and that within a very short time letter carriers will be put on.

H. H. Brown, manager of the Hair Hardware store is the happiest man in 'steen states all on account of the Storke leaving a fine boy at his home Wednesday, July 28, which happened to be Mr. Brown's 30th birthday. He feels like celebrating. Mother and child are doing nicely.

You can for a limited period purchase from us the medicine you need under positive written guarantee to refund purchase price if you are not entirely satisfied with the benefits received. Suwannee Drug Co.

James Cason, an old citizen of this county, died at his home in Suwannee county Wednesday of last week of paralysis. His remains were brought back to this county and buried in Prospect cemetery. He had many friends in this county who will regret to learn of his death. —Jasper News.

James Reeves was in the city the first of the week the guest of Col. Fred W. Butler and family. His bright little daughter, Miss Agnes, who had been visiting her cousins, Clara and Joe Butler for the past month, returned home with him, accompanied by little Miss Clara and Master Joe who will be their guests for a few days.

T. S. Baisden made a business trip to Jacksonville Wednesday.

Have you read Stetson Law Bulletin?

Miss Norris, of Newton, Ga., returned home Monday after a delightful visit here with Miss Lizzie Baisden.

Col. Cary A. Hardee, state attorney for this circuit, has been in Jasper this week attending circuit court which convened there Monday.

You must return your voting tickets by Saturday July 31st at 10 p. m. at Cook's.

Sid Conner, Jr., of Quitman, Ga., was in the city the latter part of last week to visit his wife and child who have been spending a few weeks here with relatives. Sid has a lucrative position with the railroad company at Quitman and is "making good."

Mrs. T. C. Bradford, of Madison, after a few days visit in this city with her daughter, Mrs. Will Bryson, left Tuesday for Suwannee Springs where she will be the guest of her daughters, Mrs. Geo. E. Porter, Jr., and Mrs. Charlton Blackwell, until Saturday.

Cold drinks, ice cream and cigars at Cook's.

Miss Virgie Register, an accomplished and very popular young lady of Jasper, returned home Tuesday after a delightful visit in this city with her sisters, Mrs. R. E. McNeill and Mrs. Joe Roof. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Roof and little daughter, Joe S., who will be her guest for a few days.

Nice line tobacco and cigars at S. P. Mays.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Burrows, of Henderson, N. C., are in the city, guests of their daughter, Mrs. C. C. Cook and family. Mr. and Mrs. Burrows like our city and county very much, and it is likely they will decide to make this their home.

Theodore Randall and his pretty little daughter, Miss Flored, came down from Madison last week to visit Mr. Randall's daughters, Mrs. Sid Hinely and Mrs. C. A. Hardee. Mr. Randall has returned home, but Miss Flored remained over in the city with her sisters for several days.

Walter Bryson has just closed a sale of 2200 acres of Suwannee county lands to Morgan V. Gress, of Jacksonville, who is buying for the Gress Manufacturing Company of that city. The consideration was about $4,000. This land will now be placed on the market in small bodies and sold on easy terms to actual settlers.

MONEY HAS AN EARNING POWER

One of the first things a young business man ought to learn is the earning power of money. Every time you save a dollar and put it to work in our Savings Department, you increase your earning capacity. A dollar spent means nothing to you, but a dollar saved is just one more strand in the force that will pull you up to affluence. Dollars working here earn 4 per cent. interest, compounded quarterly.

The Citizens Bank of Live Oak
LIVE OAK, FLORIDA

DESIGNATED
STATE, COUNTY AND CITY DEPOSITORY

WHEN THE ICE

man is king, you'll find that our Porch Furniture is the kind that is necessary to make the enjoyment of the porch this weather complete. A few of our specials:

Porch Rockers, Porch Shades, Settees, Hammocks and Porch Chairs

The Newly Married

couple will be able to "stretch" that dollar the furthest here in the furnishing of their "nest." Not alone are we low priced, but we are superbly stocked to meet the most exacting demands of the most particular in everything in Furniture. It'll pay you to secure our prices and look our stocks over before you invest.

LIVE OAK FURNITURE CO.

SUCCESSORS TO J. B. BARTON & CO.